The registration form for the competition is attached to this email. You are requested to download, print and fill out the form. However, to obtain your registration number you must pay a registration fee of BDT 3,000/- (Taka three thousand only) and submit the completed form to the IAB office. Please note that the 25th Executive Council of the IAB is extending a special discount on the registration fee to the participants of the previous IAB design competition for the DNCC Civic Center and DNCC Tower. Details of this special discount are available at the IAB office.

IAB firmly believes that the design competition will bring about the most appropriate architectural expression for an urban landmark at the Purbachal New Township and your participation and support can only make the competition a success.
